

The Vermont HIV Prevention
Community Planning Group

2004
Comprehensive
HIV Prevention Plan
for Vermont

*A collaborative effort between the
Vermont HIV Prevention
Community Planning Group
and the
Vermont Department of Health
HIV/AIDS Program*

Adopted, September 2004

This document is also available at <http://www.nvtredcross.org/cpg>

Table of Contents

4	Section 1: Introduction and Summary
5	Who uses the Comprehensive Plan?
5	HIV Prevention in Vermont: A Rural Challenge
6	CDC'S New Initiative: Advancing HIV Prevention
9	Guide to Acronyms and Abbreviations
10	Executive Summary: Highlights of the 2004 Comprehensive Plan
31	Section 2: Community Services Assessment
31	Resource Inventory
31	Department of Health-Funded Community-based HIV Prevention Programs
34	Department of Health-Funded Support Programs
35	Related Programs and Services
41	Needs Assessment
41	Men who have Sex with Men
58	Injection Drug Users
65	People at Increased Risk Through Heterosexual Transmission
65	People Living with HIV/AIDS
66	Gap Analysis
66	Men who have Sex with Men
69	Injection Drug Users
71	People at Increased Risk Through Heterosexual Transmission
72	People Living with HIV/AIDS
75	Section 3: Prioritization of Target Populations
89	Section 4: Prevention for Positives
89	Introduction/Process
89	National Association of People with AIDS (NAPWA)'s Principles of HIV Prevention with Positives
92	Prevention for Positives: Additional Issues
94	Section 5: Men who have Sex with Men (MSM)
94	Introduction
95	Notes on Terminology
96	Prevention Priorities
97	Related Information and Recommendations
103	Section 6: People at Increased Risk Through Heterosexual Transmission
103	Defining the Population
105	Women at Increased Risk: Related Issues
107	Youth at Increased Risk: Related Issues
109	Men at Increased Risk: Related Issues

TABLE OF CONTENTS - continued

113	Section 7: Injection Drug Users (IDU)
113	Introduction
114	Prevention Priorities
118	Related Information and Recommendations
125	Section 8: Interventions
125	A Note on Rural-Specific Limitations
126	Elements of a Successful HIV Prevention Program
129	Behavioral Theories
131	Interventions With Shown Effectiveness
131	Diffusion of Effective Behavioral Interventions for HIV Prevention (DEBIs)
134	Compendium of HIV Prevention Interventions with Evidence of Effectiveness
137	Prevention For Positives - Interventions
142	HIV Prevention Intervention Categories
146	Counseling, Testing, and Referral Definitions
147	Section 9: Vermont Department of Health Activities
147	Section 9A: Community Planning
151	Section 9B: Partner Counseling and Referral Services
152	Section 9C: Capacity Building
155	Section 9D: Counseling and Testing
158	Section 9E: Surveillance and Research
160	Section 9F: Health Education/Risk Reduction (HE/RR)
161	Section 9G: Evaluation/PEMS
162	Section 9H: Collaboration and Coordination
165	Section 9I: Quality Assurance
165	Section 9J: Perinatal Transmission

APPENDICES

Appendix 1:	Epidemiological Profile
Appendix 2:	Prevention For Positives - Interventions Fact Sheets
Appendix 3:	MSM Needs Assessment
3A:	MSM Survey Instrument
3B:	MSM Service Provider Interview Guide
Appendix 4:	IDU Needs Assessment
4A:	Materials and Methods
4B:	IDU Participant Interview Guide
4C:	IDU Service Provider Interview Guide